Coach Recruitment and Development Policy

Qualified Coaches

It is imperative for the development of the game that all coaches at all levels within clubs hold a recognised FA qualification or are working towards becoming qualified.

Recruitment of suitable Coaches

Research has consistently shown that the major factors, which motivate individuals to become involved in coaching are:

- A desire to continue their involvement in sport after playing and continue to meet their competitive needs
- A desire to help young people to develop sport, particularly their own children
- A desire to put something back into sport

When recruiting new coaches it is always useful to contact your County Football Association Football Development Officers or Local Authority Sport Development Officer to seek advice.

Remember when recruiting to follow the advice from the Safeguarding Children Workshop and from the section in this manual on recruitment.

Finding new coaches is not an easy task, however, it is a good idea to target the following group of individuals:

- Ex-players or players who are coming to the end of their playing career
- Students, particularly those studying Physical Education or Sports Degrees, A-Level Physical Education, G.N.V.Q Leisure and Tourism, C.S.L.A students, Junior Football Organisers and Step into Sport
- Parents/Carers. (This could be part of your Soccer Parent sessions)
- Young players to work towards taking a qualification, working alongside more experienced coaches
- Teachers, particularly those who have an interest in football
- Advertising within the local community

The Football Association recommends for the safety and welfare of coaches and players, the following measures are adopted when recruiting coaches:

- Clubs should follow The FA Best Practice and Procedures
- Coaches should be required to complete an application form identifying experience, qualifications and references. (See Volunteer Application Form)
- Coaches should be required to be interviewed
